

from the pastor's pen . . .

Welcome to March! Hopefully soon, we will see the bitter grip of Winter ease and our thoughts turning toward happier sights of crocuses and daffodils. I don't know about you, but I am plenty ready for Spring to come. There is something in our DNA that yearns for the greening of the pastures and the appearance of wee buds on the trees. Our desire for newness isn't monopolized by the natural world though. Our souls begin to stir and come to life, not unlike a bear coming forth from hibernation. We awaken to the Son and embrace his warming and healing grace. This is how I picture Lent.

Some folks see Lent as a church-created time focused only on the doom and gloom stuff like introspection, sin, judgement, ashes, and death. It is the time for "giving up" beloved things like soda, chips, chocolate, gaming, or television. For some, Lent is an unpleasant time of sacrifice and self-denial. And they are right, to a point. The challenge of Lent however, is to prepare our hearts both for Calvary AND Easter.

Perhaps if we modify our thinking a bit, we could envision Lent as a joyful opportunity for the greening of our souls. To continue with the bear metaphor, we get a chance to awaken from the slumber of shame, guilt, and apathy, to living the life of freedom, fruitfulness, and commitment. We all get second chances through Lent to be better people...to be better disciples. Will you join me in this wonderful endeavor we call Lent and be thankful for the possibilities that await us on Easter? I pray so.

Lent begins on Wednesday, March 6th. We will be worshipping at 7pm with our Cito UMC friends as well as

~ Servant of the Month ~
by Reta Chamberlain

Servant of the Month for March is James Deshong. Jim is retired from JLG management and he has served in the Army National Guard. He has been a member of the church for 15 years. He teaches the Adult Sunday School Class and is a Sound Technician for the church. The committees he is on are the SPRC team, Worship team, Small Group Coordinator and Church Council.

When asked what his favorite Bible verse is, it's Psalm 138:3 "In the day I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul" (KJV). God did not remove David's troubles even though he cried out for God to do so. We are not to treat God as a genie in a lamp who grants all our whims and wishes. Sometimes God takes us out of our trouble, but more often he stands with us and walks with us through it.

When asked what he likes to do in his spare time Jim likes to spend most of his time with his wife Sharon, his children, and grandchildren having cookouts and swimming. He also enjoys and is very active with boating, fishing, camping, hunting. He loves to travel and make home videos of their trips and doing editing by adding music and narration. He also does his own taxidermy.

Thank you Jim for all you do for the church. It is greatly appreciated. God's blessings!

An invitation from the Adult Sunday School Class

The adult Sunday school class is starting a new study beginning March 3rd, titled The End: What Happens Next by Pastor Robert Morris Ministries. Have you thought what heaven will be like? Do you have questions about what happens when we draw our final breath? Well thankfully God's Word is filled with amazing and exciting glimpses into the realities of heaven. We will explore questions like, "Will we have bodies in heaven?". This five-message series covers an amazing array of "end time" things, including insights into the second coming of Christ and how we should live until that day. This class meets Sunday mornings at 9 am in the lower level of the church.

Trust

God from the bottom of your heart;
don't try to figure out everything on your own.

Listen

for God's voice in everything you do, everywhere you go;
he's the one who will keep you on track.

Proverbs 3:5-6 (The Message)

This & That

We will begin the Lenten season with an Ash Wednesday service to be held in the sanctuary, March 6, at 7:00 pm. Pastor Robin will be sharing the pulpit with Pastor Faith Anderson, Cito UMC, for this service. Please “come as you are” and reflect on your relationship with Jesus. This is a great way to get the most out of this wonderful season and participation in the imposition of ashes. All are welcome to attend this special service.

MARCH 10, 2019

Spring forward

Don't forget to set clocks ahead one hour at 2 a.m. Sunday.

Power-Up

Faith & Sports Rec League

As this league is about to wind up another very successful season, it will hold it's final games on March 3. These games will have the parents playing against the students and will be followed by a banquet for players and their families. May God continue to bless these athletes, organizers, and coaches.

Special Discussion

On Sunday, March 31, 3:00 to 5:30 pm, there will be a Post Special General Conference Discussion held at the Hollidaysburg First United Methodist Church. For more information see Pastor Robin and/or watch for announcement in future bulletins.

5th Sunday

March 31st will be the first 5th-Sunday for 2019. As was done last year, we will continue the practice of having the 5th-Sunday worship service in the Faith and Life Center in lieu of the sanctuary. The service will be followed by a potluck lunch. Plan to spend some time in fellowship with your congregation and enjoy some good food.

Agnes Snyder, 2009 McConnellsburg United Methodist Church Cookbook

Visiting his grandparents, a small boy opened the big family Bible. He was fascinated as he fingered through the old pages. Suddenly, something fell out. He picked it up and found that it was an old leaf that had been pressed flat between the pages. "Mama, look what I found," he called out excitedly.

"What is it, dear?" his mother asked.

With astonishment in his voice, the boy answered,

"I think it's Adam's underwear!"
